

Core Consortium and Network Implementation Partners

CORE PARTNERS

Chemonics – Prime partner and responsible for overall project implementation, financial management, and regional program operations in Francophone and Anglophone Africa and Asia. Co-technical lead with expertise in supply chain management, PSE, health workforce development, health information systems, governance, and public financial management.

Results For Development (R4D) – Co-technical lead. Expertise in public-private engagement, health financing, innovation scaling, market shaping, adaptive learning, and partner coaching techniques.

Pathfinder – Expertise in family planning, service delivery, quality improvement, fostering government stewardship of the health market. Deep understanding of many local family planning markets especially regarding service delivery, behavior change communication, and youth.

Zenysis – Expertise in robust digital health, data integration, and analytics to inform PSE decision-making and adaptive management.

SPECIALIZED NETWORK IMPLEMENTATION PARTNERS

Ariadne Labs is a joint center of health care innovation at the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and Brigham and Women's Hospital. Expertise in creating simple, scalable solutions to improve health care delivery.

Metrics for Management (M4M) strengthens government ministries and partners as they identify the most important challenges and generate evidence to inform market development and PSE to achieve equitable access to voluntary FP, MNCH, malaria, and HIV/AIDS

Scope Impact uses an evidence-based, human-centered design (HCD)-led, inclusive problem-solving methodology to design and scale people- and systems-centric innovations to improve health outcomes.

Stage Six provides services to assist small, commercially viable social enterprises to use business format franchise models to scale rapidly and sustainably.

NETWORK IMPLEMENTATION PARTNERS

ACCESS Health India (ACCESS) works with public and private partners to improve health care at the system level by 1) creating knowledge products with multidisciplinary research, 2) strengthening knowledge exchange, and 3) enabling capacity building platforms.

Africa Christian Health Association Platform (ACHAP) manages a network of organizations in 32 countries, supporting Christian Health Associations and Church Health Networks to facilitate joint advocacy, support capacity development, establish and maintain partnerships, and provide quality health care.

Africa Healthcare Federation (AHF) is a pan-African organization with 27 country-level private health care federations striving to amplify the voice of the private sector in policy, facilitate cross-federation learning and knowledge sharing, and promote public private partnerships.

Amref Health Africa increases sustainable health access to communities in Africa through solutions in human resources for health (HRH), health services delivery, and investments in health.

Centre de Recherche en Reproduction Humaine et en Démographie (CERRHUD) promotes equity, local learning, and capacity building in health services with research and context-sensitive evidence generation and use. It specializes in health research programs on governance, service delivery, financing, and QI.

Insight Health Advisors (IHA) is a Kenyan health systems management firm working in sub-Saharan Africa to contribute to improved health outcomes through health systems and health markets interventions that increase equitable access to quality health services and products.

Makerere University School of Public Health (MakSPH) is a leading public health research and training institution in Africa with nine accredited education programs. It provides capacity development in QI, integrated supportive supervision, and regulation of mixed health systems.

Solina Group is an indigenous African management and health systems consulting firm that works with governments, researchers, development organizations, and the private sector to optimize health outcomes.

Strategic Purchasing Africa Resource Center (SPARC) is a resource hub that provides technical expertise and knowledge resources to optimize health care spending. It hosts a platform that facilitates capacity building, knowledge management, and joint learning via mentorship and coaching.

Strathmore University specializes in researching enabling environments to scale sustainable innovations in the health system, focusing on impact and testing evidence-based approaches.

Total Family Health Organization is a fully Ghanaian non-profit social marketing and behavior communication organization focused on FP/RH, MNCH, malaria, nutrition, and public health emergencies. With local and regional experts, TFHO utilizes its deep insights and skills in behavior change to facilitate the sustainable adoption of positive health behaviors for improved health outcomes.

Utora Institute specializes in QI, measurement, evaluation, research and learning, quality assessment and accreditation, and patient safety. Expertise includes capacity building for medical directors, managers, and front-line health workers.