

On-Line Conference
Expanding Health Service Access, Quality, and Equity in Developing Countries:
The Role of the Private Sector
Nov. 13-18, 2006

	Sign in and Pre-Registration Welcome and Orientation:	Dr. Ruth Berg, Project Director, PSP- One Project
	Why the Private Sector Matters: Evidence from the Field: Prerecorded	Dr. Ruth Levine, Senior Fellow, Center for Global Development
Part 1: Strengths and Limitations of Private Sector Strategies
Opens November 13	Can Generic Contraceptive Manufacturers Increase Equity without Compromising Quality?	Ms. Francoise Armand, Director of Social Marketing and Pharmaceutical Partnerships, PSP- One Project
	The Impact of Private Clinic Networks on Client Service Access and Quality: Evidence from Ethiopia, India, and Pakistan	Dr. Amy Tsui, Director, Bill and Melinda Gates Institute for Population and Reproductive Health, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health
	Insurance As A Means to Improve Access to Care: A Silver-Plated Bullet?	Dr. Tania Dmytraczenko, Senior Health Economist, PSP- One Project
	Pre-recorded questions/answers/comments and open discussion room for attendee interaction
November 14 7-9:00 am EST	Live Facilitated Discussion #1: Meet experts, colleagues, friends to discuss why the private sector matters in health. This session is facilitated by a private sector health professional.
Part 2: Public/Private Interface
Opens November 15	Achieving Twin Objectives of Equity and Quality: Contracting Health Services with the Private Sector	Dr. Benjamin Loevinsohn, Lead Public Health Specialist, SASHD, World Bank
	Vouchers: Increasing Access and Quality through Consumer Choice	Dr. Claus-Peter Janisch, Senior Medical Advisor, KfW
	The (In) Visible Hand of Government in the Medical Marketplace	Rich Feeley, J.D., Boston University Center for International Health and Development
	Open discussion and pre-recorded questions/answers/comments

Part 3: Perspectives on the Private Sector:
A Discussion With Leading Health Organizations

Opens November 17	Mr. Richard Greene, Director, Office of Health, Infectious Disease and Nutrition, Bureau of Global Health, USAID
	Dr. Claus-Peter Janisch, Senior Medical Advisor, KfW
	Dr. Alexander Preker, Lead Health Economist, Health, Nutrition, and Population, World Bank
	Dr. James D. Shelton, Senior Medical Scientist, Office of Population and Reproductive Health, Bureau of Global Health, USAID
	Dr. Phyllida Travis, Health Systems Advisor, World Health Organization
	Open discussion and pre-recorded questions/answers/comments
November 17 1-3:00 pm EST	Live Facilitated Discussion #2: Meet experts, colleagues, friends to discuss why the private sector matters in health. This session is facilitated by a private sector health professional.
November 18	Pre-Recorded Summarizing Remarks and live questions/answers/comments	Dr. Ruth Berg, Project Director, PSP-One Project
Site will remain accessible for an additional 60 days		